

Riverview Psychiatric Center

Advisory Board Annual Evaluation Form

Evaluation for 2004

Advisory Body Composition	Agree	Disagree	If disagree, then please explain
1. Does the Advisory Board membership represent key stakeholders adequately?
2. Do Advisory Board members have the necessary experience to fully participate in the meeting?
Educational needs of members
3. Are Advisory Board members adequately oriented to their roles and responsibilities?
4. Are the continued educational needs of the members considered?
Procedures/Information flow
5. Does the Advisory Board reinforce the Mission and Vision of the hospital?
6. Is significant information provided to the Advisory Board members for responsible decision- making?
7. Do meeting minutes adequately reflect the content of the meeting?
Scope of responsibilities
8. Does the Advisory Board effectively monitor quality of care issues and the CPI process?
9. Does the Advisory Board evaluate the effectiveness of new processes and programs?
10. Does the Advisory Board make informed decisions regarding Medical Staff credentialing, privileges and reappointments in order to ensure a well functioning Medical Staff?

Riverview Psychiatric Center
Advisory Board Annual Evaluation Form
Evaluation for 2004

Additional Recommendations

1. What are the primary areas that you feel that the Advisory Board should focus on for the upcoming year?
2. What are the strengths and weaknesses of the Advisory board as it currently exists?
3. Please identify an area of educational need for the current membership.

Riverview Psychiatric Center
Advisory Board Annual Evaluation Form
Evaluation for 2004